

Environmental, Health & Safety Policy

RIVERSTONE RESOURCES SDN BHD is a glove manufacturer specialize in the production of cleanroom gloves, healthcare gloves, fingercoats, face masks and packaging bags. Located at Kawasan Perindustrian Bukit Beruntung, Selangor.

We care for people and environment. A safe and healthy working environment will be provided to each employee, contractor, visitor and all interested parties. Through consistent and continuing efforts in our operations, activities and services, incidents, occupational illnesses and environmental pollutions can be prevented. Management involvement and commitment are crucial in driving a proactive health, safety and environment culture at all locations and operations. Within Riverstone we all share the responsibility to achieve the highest standards of OHS and environmental performance and we will all strive to provide the highest standards of protection to our interested parties.

RIVERSTONE RESOURCES SDN. BHD. will take necessary, appropriate and practical action:

- a. to prevent, control and reduce incident, near misses, injuries, ill health and environmental pollution due to our activities;
- b. to have a risk-based process in-place for identification, assessment, classification, prioritization and control of hazards and risks;
- c. to provide relevant information, operational control, appropriate training on OHS and environmental requirement and supervision by means to enable all employees, contractors, visitors and interested parties to performs their activities safely;
- d. to implementing a Plan-Do-Check-Act systematic approach and provide all necessary resources for implementation of programs by means to continual improvement of environmental, health and safety performance at work place;
- e. to promote a positive health, safety and environmental culture in which every employee, their representative, contractor and visitor feels free to speak up about non-conformances, undesirable or unsafe situations or any other OHS and environmental related issue and participate in all related activities and programs;
- f. to comply with all relevent laws, regulations and other requirements especially Environmetal Quality Act 1974, Occupational Safety and Health Act 1994 and Factories and Machinery Act 1967;

Managing Director

.....
(Wong Teek Son)

RIVERSTONE RESOURCES SDN BHD
Apr 15, 2021